Winter Maintenance

Here in the Northeast of the United States winter is upon us and we are eagerly awaiting the first blanket of pristine white snow. There are 4 key maintenance aspects we wish to highlight that are essential for the health of the roof during the winter season.

Green Roofs vs Cool Roofs

There are a number of debates swirling around the roofing industry these days, possibly none more so than the green roof versus reflective white roofs debate. Numerous factors go into the decision making process when deciding which roof best suits your needs.

Interior Design Show - Toronto 2011

The 4 day event will showcase the best and brightest from Canada's flourishing design scene. Where green is the new black, green roof technologies will be taking center stage as the latest in eco-chic.
